Founded in 1992, the NM Children's Foundation has given over one million dollars to nonprofits located across New Mexico. Organizations served are diverse but all have budgets of less than $300,000 annually. These nonprofits provide services to support children such as grief counseling; suicide prevention; new mother support; literacy programs; summer camps for children impacted by AIDS or children with autism; community libraries; early childhood programs; new clothes, shoes and school supplies for needy children; and advocacy for children in foster care.

Our Mission Statement is to support small programs statewide that serve the physical, mental, educational and social needs of children and their families.
