

John Rangel is a multi-talented musician of the highest caliber. Jazz pianist, guitarist, composer, producer and educator, Rangel has been a mainstay on the New Mexico jazz scene for more than 15 years. A classically trained pianist, Rangel cites early influences from J.S. Bach and Stravinsky to Ray Charles, Errol Garner and Oscar Peterson. Over his career he has explored a wide range of musical styles including Jazz, Classical, Film Music, Pop, Hi-Life, Salsa, Reggae, and Calypso. His versatility as a jazz pianist is evident in his work with artists as varied as Nat Adderly, Marcus Printup, Billy Higgins, Sam Rivers, Ravi Coltrane, Pharaoh Saunders, Bobby Shew, Tierney Sutton, Rosemary Clooney— and the full gamut of leading New Mexico jazz musicians.

European-born photographer, Sven Doornkaat, will be on location to capture the moments of you and your friends in the striking setting of Origami in the Garden. Sven's photos have been published in more than 50 countries and magazines around the globe. He has also photographed several album covers as well as numerous campaigns for US brands. The New Mexico Children's Foundation is honored to have Sven on-site for this memorable event of art and music!
